Announcements

NEW MEETING! EASTON Mondays at 9:30 am “Women’s Living Sober,” Grace Street, 8262 Ocean Gateway, Suite 1.

EXPLORE AA at different Eastern Shore meetings. Have you experienced the comfy sofas at East New Market or the beautiful setting and delicious cookies at Still Pond? Let’s check out the new Church Creek meeting! Contact Anna M. at info@midshoreintergroup.org or organize your own road trip and invite us along!

CAMPING & MEETINGS IN TUCKAHOE STATE PARK – SEPTEMBER 27-29

Hosted by the Hillsboro Group. Limited sites available – reserve ASAP directly with the park at Parkreservations.Maryland.gov. You don’t have to camp out – come for the meetings on Friday night and all day Saturday. See the flyer on website at midshoreintergroup.org/events.

BRIDGING THE GAP - Help the alcoholic getting out of treatment. The Treatment Committee is looking for volunteers to explain the Bridging the Gap program at treatment facilities and offer alcoholics a way to connect with A.A. after treatment. Contact Mike W. at btg@midshoreintergroup.org.

A COMMITTEE THAT IS ACTUALLY FUN! The Midshore Sobriety Show is Saturday, October 26 at Denton Library and the acts are coming together. We still need ideas, performers, ticket sellers, stagehands! Rehearsals take place every two weeks beginning August 21 in Hillsboro. See the flyer at midshoreintergroup.org/events or contact show director: Jackie K. at (410) 310-5173.

CARRY THE MESSAGE in a way that works for you! Tell your story in treatment or detention centers, or take a cushy job at the Easton Intergroup office. Help out with technology and website stuff, or join the Activities Committee and build fellowship in creative ways. For more information, contact chair@midshoreintergroup.org

STOP BY THE INTERGROUP OFFICE - Browse or buy some literature, hang out and chat about our amazing program. The office is open for a few hours on most days but call ahead and make sure someone’s there. See the website for hours midshoreintergroup.org
